Dear Mr. Hearst,

Thank you for your letter regarding the visit to Washington of the delegates to the 1978 United States Senate Youth Program. It will be a pleasure to meet with these young leaders of tomorrow, and I have written Charles Gould advising him of my acceptance.

Thank you too for your interest in the youth of our country and for the fine work the Hearst Foundation is doing to further their understanding of the mechanisms of American government.

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Dear Mr. Gould,

Thank you for your letter and the kind remarks on my talk at the Commonwealth Club last August. Thanks too for inviting me to participate in the program which the Foundation is arranging here in Washington for our nation's future leaders.

It will be a pleasure to host this fine group of young people, and I have set aside Tuesday, January 31, at 3:30 p.m. for their visit here. Mr. Herb Hetu, my Assistant for Public Affairs, will contact Miss Kathy Joseph to arrange the details.

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Dear Admiral Turner,

I know our old Navy type, Charles Gould, has asked you to provide a CIA briefing for the 102 bright youngsters who will be in Washington the week of January 30 as delegates to the 1978 United States Senate Youth Program.

These high school juniors and seniors come from the 50 states and the District of Columbia and have already proved their intelligence and leadership abilities.

They comprise an outstanding pool of talent. I know, therefore, that they will greatly benefit by any message you wish to give them.

Our Foundations have been privileged to financially sponsor the Senate Youth Program since its inception in 1962. Each year, it has received the unanimous endorsement of the Senate.

I join with Charles in hoping that you will add an important dimension to the Washington week of these talented students by providing them with a briefing at your headquarters on Tuesday, January 31, at 3:30 p.m.

I look forward to hearing from you, and thank you for considering this request.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Stansfield Turner
Director, Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Admiral Turner:

As a member of the luncheon committee of the Commonwealth Club of San Francisco, I was pleased and impressed with your recent remarks before our group. You treated sensitive matters in a sensible and responsible manner.

The capacity audience was with you all the way. No one left the crowded room until you had answered the final question. That is not usual.

During my years in the Navy - WW II, Korea and a brief tour of Vietnam - I followed your career and, therefore, cheered when you were appointed to your present high post.

With some in the press and in high places on an "openess" crusade, the appointment of a less strong individual might have reduced our intelligence system to a shambles.

Without clouding the sincerity of my opening paragraphs, let me plunge into the primary purpose of this letter.

On January 30, 1978, at the invitation of the United States Senate, 102 of the country's brightest high school students will visit the nation's capital for a week of intensive exposure to the intricate mechanisms of our governing system.

We hope you will participate in this Program, which has been fully funded by our Foundation since it was approved by the Senate in 1962.

These students - two from each state and D.C. - have been chosen by educators for their outstanding ability and demonstrated qualities of leadership.

The agenda calls for talks with President Carter, Vice President Mondale, senior Senators, Cabinet leaders and Department heads.

Last year, a highspot of the Washington week was a visit to CIA headquarters with the briefing by the Acting Director.

This year's group has high hopes that they, too, can visit your headquarters and be the beneficiaries of your remarks. I hope, therefore, that you can carve time from your difficult schedule to invite them for Tuesday, January 31 at 3:30 p.m.

If you are able to arrange this meeting, I know these leaders of tomorrow will carry positive impressions about the CIA to the far corners of our nation.

I hope that you will have a member of your staff contact Miss Kathy Joseph, director of the Program, to let us know that you will be able to participate.

Sincerely,
